SchoolFusion Now a Pre-Approved Vendor for Harris County Dept of Education

Denver, Colo. —[January 22, 2010]— SchoolFusion, an award-winning provider of K-12 website and communication solutions, just announced its recent preapproval status for all schools in Harris County, Texas that are looking for a new website solution.

This preapproved status eliminates the need for schools to go through the tedious and often time consuming Request for Proposal (RFP) process. Harris County Schools will be able to select SchoolFusion as their new website provider, knowing the company and product have been carefully vetted by an advisory board.

SchoolFusion will empower districts to communicate more effectively to their education communities by using customized content management systems, online calendars, easy-to-use classroom websites, CIPA compliant messaging and an innovative set of Web 2.0 tools.

Several schools in Harris County already use SchoolFusion and report great success with the product. Carolyn Beavers, a Webmaster from Lufkin Independent School District, has been using SchoolFusion since 2006 and highly recommends the product due to its, "...ease of use, great interface, prompt service and support, and the product allows for great parent and community visibility."

In response to SchoolFusion's new pre-approved status in Harris County, SchoolFusion President Stephen Shapiro says, "We are very excited to be a pre-approved vendor for Harris County, and we hope to form life-long partnerships with any school that aspires to advance and improve school communication and learning with 21st century tools like SchoolFusion."
